

Sprint 2 Plan: Social Analytics

Final Revision 07/17/2018

Sprint time: 07/11/2018 - 07/17/2018

Template:

As a [user-type], I should be able to [some action], for the purpose of [some goal/functionality]

As a user, I should be able to log in and out of the application having it collect my name, email, and password, so that I can start and end a session of using the application.

- Webpage up and running (1 point)
- UI for the web page with login box, with necessary fields (3 points)
- Add required fields to database (3 points)
- Authenticate login with info from database (3 points)
- Add feature to logout users (1 point)

As a user, I should be able to provide my twitter handle and get back my posts published on twitter, so that I can see the information that will be analyzed

- Create user input element using Vue commands and submit button (3 points)
- Create button onclick method for requesting tweets given handle (3 points)
- Build database to hold tweets (8 points)
- Add tweets (text) to the database (1 points)
- Get the tweets (text) from the database and display (3 points)

As a user, I should be able to see analytics of my public tweets that describe the sentiments of my posts, so that I can better understand them

- Run analytics on tweets (8 points)
- Visually (text) present this information to the user (3 points)