- Definition of done for user stories
  - Produced code for related functionality (DONE)
  - Feature code builds without errors (DONE)
  - Feature code has been peer review at least once (DONE)
  - Doesn't create merge conflicts (DONE)
  - Documentation has been completed and updated (DONE)
- Definition of done for sprints
  - Definition of done for each user story is met (Partially)
  - Product backlog has been updated (DONE)
  - All bugs are fixed (DONE
  - Project deployed on the test environment identical to production platform
- Definition of done for releases
  - Code is complete
  - All acceptance criteria has been met
  - No unintegrated work has been left in any development or staging environment